Disclaimer:

Content liability

All contents of our website have been created with the utmost care and to the best of our knowledge. However, we cannot guarantee the accuracy, completeness and timeliness of the content. Liability claims against caREL, which refer to damages of a material or non-material nature, in particular also to consequential damages, which were caused by the use or non-use of the information presented or by the use of incorrect and incomplete information, are fundamentally excluded, insofar as no demonstrably intentional or grossly negligent fault exists on our part.

All offers are subject to change and non-binding. We expressly reserve the right to change, supplement or delete parts of the pages or the entire offer without prior notice or to discontinue the publication temporarily or permanently.

Limitation of liability for external links

Our website contains links to external websites of third parties. We have no influence on the content of these directly or indirectly linked websites. Therefore, we cannot guarantee the correctness of the contents of the "external links". The respective providers or operators (authors) of the sites are responsible for the contents of the external links.

The external links were checked for possible legal violations at the time of linking and were free of illegal content at the time of linking. A constant review of the content of the external links is not possible without concrete evidence of a violation of the law. In the case of direct or indirect links to the websites of third parties that lie outside our area of responsibility, a liability obligation would only exist in the case where we become aware of the content and it would be technically possible and reasonable for us to prevent use in the case of illegal content.

If we become aware of any infringements, we will remove the external links immediately.

Copyright

The content and works published on our website are subject to German copyright law. The reproduction, editing, distribution and any kind of exploitation of intellectual property in ideal and material view of the author outside the limits of copyright require the prior written consent of the respective author in the sense of copyright law. Downloads and copies of this site are only permitted for private and non-commercial use. If the content on our website was not created by us, the copyrights of third parties must be observed. The contents of third parties are marked as such. Should you nevertheless become aware of a copyright infringement, please inform us accordingly. If we become aware of any infringements, we will remove such content immediately.

Legal validity of this disclaimer

This disclaimer is to be regarded as part of the internet publication which you were referred from. If sections or individual terms of this statement are not legal or correct, the content or validity of the other parts remain uninfluenced by this fact.
